

Fong K. Yang

(612) 401-6228 | fong.k.yang@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/fong-k-yang

Open to onsite, hybrid, or remote opportunities

Technical Professional Summary

Technical professional with 21 years of experience supporting telecommunications, voice and data networks, and enterprise-level operations in the United States Army.

Experienced in LAN/WAN environments, technical troubleshooting, systems operations, process improvement, and technical training. Currently pursuing a degree in Computer Programming with a goal of transitioning into software development and information technology careers.

Technical Skills

Networking & Telecommunications: LAN/WAN operations, voice and data communications, network troubleshooting, technical documentation, system support.

Information Technology: Hardware and software troubleshooting, Microsoft Office Suite, technical research, process improvement, workflow optimization.

Professional: Leadership, team collaboration, technical instruction, project coordination, communication, and problem solving.

Education

Computer Programming Degree (In Progress) — Expected Graduation: 2028

Professional Experience

United States Army — Operations Supervisor | San Antonio, TX | February 2021 – December 2023

Managed daily operations within a 250-person organization, coordinated resources, improved processes, conducted research, and developed operational plans supporting organizational goals.

United States Army — Operations Manager | Augusta, GA | August 2017 – February 2021

Managed training operations for over 400 technical students with a 98% graduation and assignment completion rate. Coordinated with multiple organizations and resolved operational issues.

United States Army — Supervisor/Instructor | Augusta, GA | April 2014 – August 2017

Managed operations supporting five technical schools serving more than 1,000 students daily. Delivered training, maintained sensitive records, and improved collaboration among personnel.

United States Army — Telecommunications Section Leader | Kaiserslautern, Germany | December 2010 – April 2014

Led a telecommunications team supporting voice and data communication systems, coordinated technical resources, supported troubleshooting efforts, and improved team performance.

Additional Information

21-year United States Army veteran with extensive technical and leadership experience. Continuing education focused on computer programming, software development, and information technology.